

Manufacturing Services Group

WebsterRogers LLP is a large, regional accounting and consulting firm. We are the second largest accounting and consulting firm headquartered in SC and rank in the top 200 largest firms in the U.S. We have nine offices located across the region.

Through our Manufacturing Services Group, we help industrial business owners and leaders increase the value of their companies. We do that by reducing risk, streamlining non-core business functions, elevating core competencies, and improving decision making. We maintain personal relationships with our clients and offer unbiased, honest advice and recommendations. We leverage our diverse teams of consulting, advisory, tax, audit, HR, and IT professionals to identify and implement the best solutions for our clients. We also maintain a comprehensive network of strategic partners that allows us to provide solutions for any company. We are the trusted advisor our clients turn to when they are facing issues or looking to improve and grow. We provide a full suite of strategic and tactical services to industries.
